

Arcadia Supplemental Scholarship Program

Franklin Pierce University both encourages students to study abroad and recognizes that the financial challenges of studying abroad also exist. The College has collaborated with Arcadia University in an effort to offer a variety of opportunities for students to participate in. These programs have costs associated with them, and because of the Arcadia's program costs that are billed to Franklin Pierce, there are programs where a student's Franklin Pierce Grant/Scholarship must be prorated accordingly. The Office of Student Financial Services (OSFS) evaluates applications for the Arcadia Supplemental Scholarship Program and awards limited funds in an effort to make studying abroad more affordable.

Eligibility:

Students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as well as the Arcadia Supplemental Scholarship Program application to be considered. Students must be full-time, matriculated students making satisfactory academic progress (as defined) in order to participate in the scholarship program. The Arcadia Supplemental Scholarship Program Application is available in the OSFS and on the OSFS website.

Deadlines for the scholarship application are:

Fall 2007 Semester: Applications due: June 1, 2007

Spring 2008 Semester: Applications due: December 1, 2007

The OSFS evaluates all applications on a first-come, first serve basis. Applications are reviewed based on financial need and awards range from $200-$1500 for the semester the student is studying abroad in an Arcadia Program. The OSFS will notify students of eligibility in writing within 10 days of the application due date. Late applications will not be considered.

Disbursement:

The OSFS will disburse funds for all scholarship recipients after the Add/Drop period in which the student is abroad. Disbursements will be made directly onto the student's account with the University. Refunds, if eligible, will not take place until all financial aid has been posted to a student's account. Refunds will be released as requested on the Refund Request Form.
